EDITOR'S PAGE

Due to popular demand, TNC's pages are again punched with three holes so that they may be filed in a three-ring notebook for handy reference. The cover being mailed with this issue is for the September and December issues, also, and the pages for those issues are to be placed within this cover upon receipt. Since TNC will now be mailed in an envelope, each issue should arrive unsoiled and undamaged.

TNC, since its beginning in 1955, has guaranteed delivery of four issues per year to each subscriber. Allow 90 days for the delivery of each issue, then, if your copy has not arrived, notify TNC and another copy will be mailed to you, without charge, to replace the one lost in the mails. Advise in June if your March issue failed to reach you, or in September if your June issue never reached you, in December regarding non-delivery of your September issue, and in March if your December issue never arrived.

*

TNC's Five-Year Index (1955-59) is not quite ready yet. Hope to have it ready to mail in about 90 days. Your indulgence, please.

REVIEWS

Marriage Bonds of Duplin Co., N. C., 1749-1868

This is a splendid genealogical reference book for Duplin County, containing around 1400 marriage bonds dating from 1755. Since Sampson Co., N. C., was formed from Duplin in 1784, the Duplin marriage bonds for the 1755-1784 period include the Sampson Co. area. The bonds are arranged alphabetically by bridegroom, and names of bondsmen and witnesses are included. There is a separate index to brides, and index to all other names. 144 pages; size 6" x 9"; lithoprinted; price: $10.00. Order from the compiler, Mrs. Taft Bass, P. O. Box 463, Clinton, North Carolina.

Ohio Records & Pioneer Families

The first issue of Ohio Records & Pioneer Families was dated January--March, 1960, and contained 52 pages. A sampling from the 18 items in the list of contents will give an idea as to nature and scope of the publication: Ohio Cos. & Co. Seats; Petitions--N. W. Territory--Ohio, 1798-99; Williams Co. Pioneer Families; Fairfield Co. Taxpayers, 1806; Medina Co. Marriages, 1818--22; Guernsey Co. Soldiers of War of 1812; Queries and Notices. This magazine should be a great aid to persons interested in Ohio families. Many North Carolinians moved to Ohio; there were over 4,000 of them there in 1850. Size 8½" x 11"; mimeographed; price: $5.00 per year. Published quarterly, by Mrs. Esther Weygandt Powell, 36 N. Highland Avenue, Akron 3, Ohio.

Lamb Genealogy

This book contains a great deal of genealogical data on the ancestors and descendants of Thomas & Sarah (Beckwith) Lamb, of Massachusetts, who settled by 1761 in Pasquotank (now Camden) Co., N. C. Includes data on the families of Steele, Beckwith, Sanderlin, Marvin, Bell, Garlington, Staples, and others of the Camden area. Col. Gideon Lamb, of Rev. War fame, was a son of Thomas & Sarah Lamb; his sister, Elizabeth, m. c1756/7 to Robert Staples & lived in Camden Co., N. C. 112 pages; size 8½" x 11"; mimeographed; no index. Price: $3.00. Order from the compiler: Mr. Ben Garrett Sanderlin (USN, Ret.), 2 Mimosa Road, Portsmouth, Virginia.

The Russell Family in Virginia

The first part of this volume is a photo-reproduction of a rare genealogy entitled "William Russell and His Descendants," originally published in 1884 by Anna Russell des Cognets, being a record of the descendants of William Russell (c1685-1757) and wife Mary Henley of Culpeper Co., Virginia. The second part has been compiled by Anna's grandson, Louis des Cognets, Jr., and contains much new data from England and Virginia. Some famous Virginians are among the friends and relatives mentioned, including Capt. John Smith, Thomas West (Lord Delaware), Sir William Berkeley, Lt. Gov. Alexander Spotswood, William Fairfax, and Larkin Chew. According to the compiler, this book contains "several firsts: namely, the use of circumstantial evidence, which is customary in every court in the land, but new in genealogy. Also where several members of the family shared the same first name, it assisted very much in identifying them to supply them with middle names, associated with their lives in some way. Finally, a system of estimating ages of previous generations was employed. A single fact is better than many estimates, but where facts are scanty in the 17th Century, a good estimate helped in finding the truth." 317 pages of large, easily readable type; size 6" x 9"; indexed (about 2,000 names, including hundreds of pioneer families of Virginia and Kentucky who are related by marriage to the Russells). Price: $8.00, postpaid. Order from the compiler: Mr. Louis des Cognets, Jr., P. O. Box 163, Princeton, New Jersey.

Marriages of Halifax Co., N. C.

This volume appears to be a thorough listing of Halifax County marriages, 1758-1868, from many sources. All Halifax Co. marriage bonds, 1758-1810 are missing, except one dated 1774, but the rest, 1811-1868, are listed. To compensate for the loss of the early bonds, and to pick up other marriages, the following material is included: Returns of Ministers and Justices of the Peace, 1851-1867; Marriages proved only by various sources (mostly deed and will books, 1758 up); List certified for years 1786, 1788, 1789; Notices from Raleigh, Newspapers, 1799-1867; Marriages proved by various records (deeds, wills, court minutes, and District Court Minutes in Equity, middle and late 1700's and early 1800's). Upwards of 5,000 marriages in all; 90 pages; 8½" x 11"; mimeographed; indexed. Price: $10.00. Order from the compiler, Mrs. Leon W. Anderson, Oakland Farm, Route 2, Roanoke Rapids, North Carolina.

NORTH CAROLINA REVOLUTIONARY WAR PENSIONERS--INVALIDS & WIDOWS

A few records have been preserved, in the Archives in Raleigh, for some of North Carolina's invalid and widow Revolutionary War pensioners. These records are especially valuable, as there are no copies in the National Archives in Washington, D. C., since all pension applications up to 1813 were destroyed by fire in Washington during the War of 1812. Also, many of these were State rather than Federal pensions. (In conjunction with this article, be sure to refer to the "Graph of Important Revolutionary War Pension Acts and Resolutions," on page 454 of the Sept. 1958 issue of TNC.)

A 1790 Listing

The earliest extant complete listing of North Carolina's Invalid and widow Revolutionary War Pensioners was made in 1790. The headings of the various columns of data were as follows: "Names; Rank; Age; Corps & by Whom Commanded: Militia--State--Contl.; Ships or Vessells: Names--by Whom Commanded; Cause of Disability; When disabled; Where disabled; Residence: Town--County; To Whom Commutation was returned; When Pension commenced; When Pension ceased & Reasons: Died--Struck off the list & Reasons; Allowance p[er] Month; Whole Amount paid; Exact time to which the pension has been paid up." It would have been enlightening, indeed, if all this data had been supplied for each pensioner, but unfortunately much of the information was not entered on the record. In the abstracts, following, the pertinent items are given for each individual, limited, of course, by the meagre information given on the original.

Mary, widow of Lt. Col. Davidson, died in Contl. service; pension commenced 20 May 1784; 12 Pounds per month; 720 Pounds paid up to 20 of ---(torn) 1789.

BEAUFORT COUNTY OLD DEED BOOK 1, 1700-1706

Bath County was formed in 1696 (having been under the jurisdiction of Albemarle County), and about 1705 Bath was divided into three precincts: Pamptecough (Pamticoe, Pamlico, etc.; became Beaufort c1712), Wickham (became Hyde c1712), and Archdale (became Craven c1712). Beaufort, Hyde, and Craven Precincts became counties in 1739, and Bath County ceased to exist. Very few records have been preserved for Bath County, and most of the earliest records for the three precincts of Beaufort, Hyde, and Craven have been destroyed.

The earliest extant organized volume of Bath County records is to be found in the Register of Deeds office in the Beaufort County courthouse, Washington, North Carolina. Beaufort County Deed Book One (labeled "1701-1729," but actually begins in 1700) is a transcription (made perhaps in the late 1700's?) of the first ten original deed books of Beaufort County. The first of the ten old deed books (132 pages), transcribed into present-day Beaufort County Deed Book One (1701-1729), pages 1-53, covers the years 1700-1706, and includes bills of sale, deeds, wills, etc., not only for Beaufort Precinct, but also for Hyde and Craven Precincts. As in Virginia, and Albemarle Co., N. C., land was granted for the transporting of headrights into the colony, and many of these early Bath County deeds name the persons brought into the area.

The person who transcribed the old deed books took great pains to indicate, for the first two or three books he copies, the old page numbers along the margins of his copy. Unfortunately, by the time the original deed books were copies, several pages had been lost (this is true of Old Deed Book 1, at least), and many other pages were fragmentary, which will account for the gaps and blanks in the abstracts, below.

NOTE: Both the new and the old page numbers are shown, the old numbers appearing in parantheses.

1 (1) - 10 Aug. 1700 - John Buntin and wife Ellis of Bath Co., N. C., to Capt. Acknowledged 29 Oct. 1700 at a court held at house of Mr. James Nevills. Charles Smith, C't Clk. (L. Truewhitt, Co't Clk.)

MOORE COUNTY LANDOWNERS, 1815

Moore County, North Carolina, was formed in 1784 from Cumberland County, and embraced all of present-day Moore County and most (southern 90%) of Lee County (Lee formed 1907 from Chatham and Moore Counties). A courthouse fire in 1889 destroyed most of the records in the Register of Deed's office, and many in the office of the Clerk of Court. Thus all Moore County deeds, 1784-1889, were lost. With the exception of the land grants, this 1815 tax list (copied in full, below) is the one and only record of landowners in Moore County from 1784 until 1850 Census.

The original 1815 Tax List of 18 pages is in the Archives in Raleigh, North Carolina (Comptroller's Papers, Tax Lists, 1815--Box 50, Moore County, Taxables, 1815). The amount of land is given for each taxable, followed by its valuation in dollars and cents:

Ashe County

No marriage bonds appear to have been preserved for Ashe County, 1799 to 1816. The marriage bonds in the courthouse date from 1817, and those in the Archives in Raleigh date from 1828.

Beaufort County

All Beaufort County marriage bonds 1741-1843 are missing. Marriage bonds in the courthouse date from 1843. The Marriage Register in the courthouse dates from 1851.

Since the 1741-1778 listing was published, a record of marriage licenses issued in Beaufort County from Dec. 1755, to Aug. 1756 has been located (Archives, File No. SS 883):

1756: John Grilfin (Griffin?)
Benja. Cording
Alexander Stewart, Mercht.

Bertie County

Bertie County marriage bonds are missing for 1741-1761. About 1500 of the original bonds, 1762-1868, are in the Archives. The Marriage Register in the courthouse begins in or near 1850. The courthouse also has an indexed abstract of the marriage bonds for 1755-1830. Following is a listing of Bertie's marriage bonds for 1779-1800, made from the original bonds in the Archives:
